

FOREWORD

Only the dream will last. Some distant day

The wheels will falter, and the silent sun

Will see the last beam leveled to decay,

And all men's futile clangor spent and done.

Yet after brick and steel and stone are gone,

And flesh and blood are dust, the dreams live on.

DEDICATION

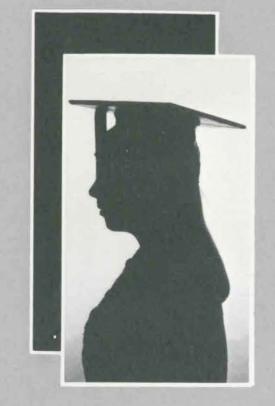

MT. ST. JOSEPH LIBRARY RUTLAND, VERMONT

TO THE PARENTS OF THE CLASS OF 1967

You have given us of your life and your great love; your very features are mirrored in us. You taught us about our God and, at the same time, to distinguish between right and wrong. You also instilled within us a deep love for our country, a love which seeks to encompass the entire human race. From this love our loyalty and sense of dedication have sprung.

We, the Class of 1967, owe to you, our parents, a tremendous debt of love, a debt to be paid in full during our lifetimes by living the best possible lives, and raising our children to do the same.

Please accept our sincere tribute to your parental love as a down payment on our special liability. This is a solemn promise that you will live on through us. It is our acknowledgment of the trust you have placed on our shoulders, as American youth, for the future of our nation, and that of our very world. This is also an acceptance of your trust and the challenge that accompanies it: "To dream the impossible dream . . ." and make it come true.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the Class of '67 -

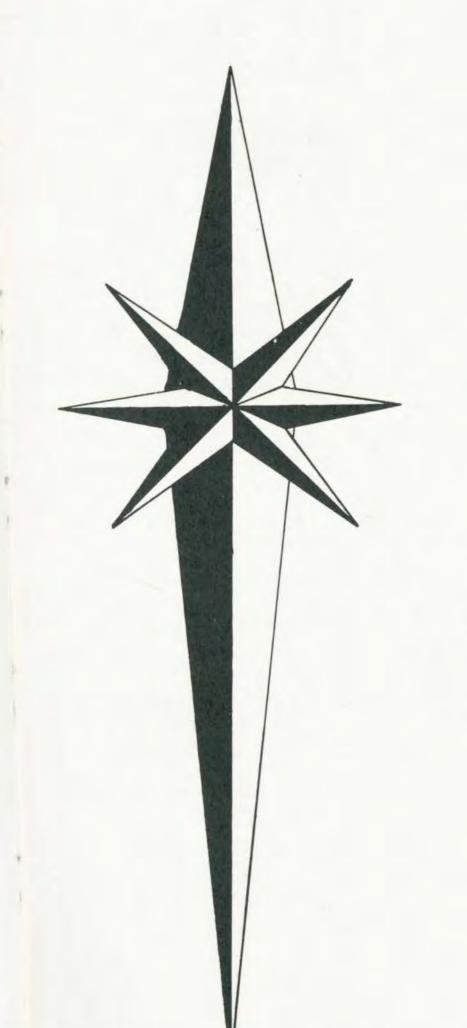

Each of you will hold a special place in my memory as you leave M.S.J. to face the challenge and uncertainty of life ahead of you. During my first year as Principal, I have watched you prepare for your long awaited graduation day, confident that M.S.J. has helped you to seek your goal of self-fulfillment in this world and its ultimate expression in the eternal union with God in heaven.

In the words of Cardinal Newman,

"May God support you all the day long,
Till the shadows lengthen
And the evening comes
And the busy world is hushed
And the fever of life is over
And your work is done.

Then in His mercy may he give you
A safe lodging
And a holy rest
And peace at the last."

Father O'Connell

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

He that governs well leads the blind;

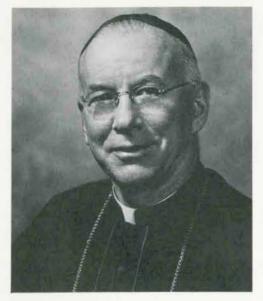

But he that teaches gives him eyes . . .

Teaching is not a flow of words, nor the draining of an hour-glass,

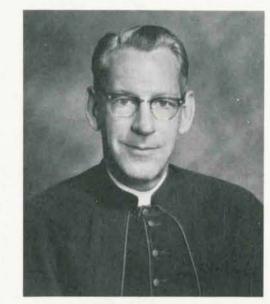

But an effectual procuring that a man know something which he knew not before, or know It Better.

Dear Seniors:

So often we hear that Christ is a Person, but does this truly mean anything? Is He merely an abstract idea? It seems to me that we cannot substitute Christ with ideas, He must be experienced to be known. To know is to have loved Him in others, to have experienced the unspeakable happening of His love, to have lived the moment of meeting another as he is, to have felt the serenity and peace of meeting someone and being fulfilled because of the encounter. "Are you Jesus?" If this question can be asked of each of us or if we can ask it of anyone we meet, our lives at the Mount will be worthwhile.

SENIORS

The Impossible Dream

To dream the impossible dream,
To fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear with unbearable sorrow,
To run where the brave dare not go.

To right the unrightable wrong,
To love pure and chaste from afar,
To try when your arms are too weary,
To reach the unreachable star!

This is my quest — to follow that star,

No matter how hopeless — no matter how far;

To fight for the right without question or pause,

To be willing to march into hell

For a heavenly cause!

And I know if I'll only be true

To this glorious quest,

That my heart will lie peaceful and calm,

When I'm laid to my rest,

And the world will be better for this,

That one man, scorned and covered with scars

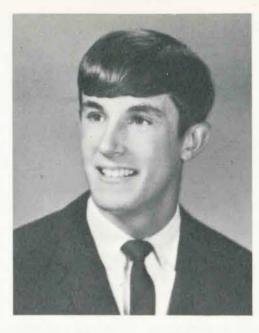

Still strove with his last ounce of courage

To reach the unreachable stars.

FROM THE EDITORS

Because the yearbook belongs to the seniors, we, as editors of this year's "Mount", would like to take this opportunity to offer our thanks to the class of '67. Their cooperation in the securing of ads and social patrons and in the taking of pictures was greatly appreciated.

WE are grateful to Sister John Paul, Sister Stephen Marie, and Sister Maureen Joseph, who were invaluable with their advice and constructive criticism.

A special thanks goes to Joseph Riter and Mary Margaret Fagan, who devoted many long hours to the yearbook during those first days of confusion and pending deadlines.

We also express our gratitude to Philip Elwert, our capable photographer, who, uncomplaining, made it his business to be at the right places at the right times to take candid shots.

Mr. Norm Porter was always available to take the pictures of classes and organizations without which there would have been no '67 "Mount".

The efforts of our fine business manager, Thomas Acker, and his staff will not be forgotten. Our assistant business manager, Clorinda Marro, deserves special recognition for her patience during moments of scheduling and rescheduling ad shots.

To the homeroom teachers, underclassmen and club moderators, we say thank you for the cooperation and help shown us during interruption of classes for picture taking.

As editors we owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to our dependable staff. In conclusion, we cannot too many times say thank you to all those who have made this yearbook possible.

Margaret DiCesare Deborah Raleigh (Co-Editors of the 1967 Mount)

M.S.J. BAND

A parade is not a parade without a band. MSJ would not be complete without its band to set the pace at pep rallies and in parades. Band members are prepared for perking up spirits because they practice twice weekly, Monday and Friday mornings before school, under the direction of Mr. Napoleon Ianni.

GLEE

Music, when soft voices die, Vibrates in the memory — Odours, when sweet violets sicken, Live within the sense they quicken—

Shelley

This year's Glee Club has earned Shelley's praise. Its Christmas and Spring concerts have provided many memorable moments for the Academy.

Yet, members of the Glee Club are not limited to singing in the Rutland area. Kathy Sheridan and Cynthia Wierzbicki were this year's delegates to All New England, while Anne Castle, Theresa Elwert, Maureen Ryan, Cynthia Wierzbicki, Linda Manley, Anna Cassarino, and Kathy Sheridan represented us at All State.

Club members practice earnestly for an approaching concert.

The annual Christmas concert given by the Glee Club was conducted by Mr. Socinski, the club moderator.

FUTURE SCIENTISTS OF AMERICA

This year's Science Night was highlighted by a "scientific version" of the College Bowl.

L. Manley and C. Haas' efforts earned "The Lamp of Knowledge" for M.S.J. Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free Library.

Science Club Officers: President M. Densmore, Treasurer K. Maley, Moderator Sr. Helena, Secretary M. Pitaniello, Vice-President D. Carrillo

The members of the F.S.A. are busy people — busy pursuing their favorite aspect of science. The year's activities — scientific discussions, guest speakers, and project reports all culminated in the club sponsored annual Science Night. The club's success can be measured by its statewide recognition and its reception of the coveted Lamp of Knowledge.

FIRST ROW — Y. Cicotelli, A. Caliguiri, S. Abatiell, K. Maley, M. Dupre, D. Frankiewicz, SECOND ROW — B. Gilman, E. Guyette, K. Pellegrino, S. Greeno, B. Booth, A. Castle, V. Doucette, THIRD ROW — B. Gorruso, M. Brown, M. Musella, D. Raleigh, M. Flanagan.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The F.T.A. combines quantity with quality. Many members attend monthly meetings and participate in worthwhile activities such as helping grade school teachers, teaching catechism, and observing special teachers. Moreover, each year, senior members have an opportunity to do some practice teaching in the local public schools.

F.T.A. moderator Sr. Bernard Michele listens patiently while Secretary Maureen Flanagan, Treasurer Diane Frankiewicz, President Susan Abatiell, and Vice-president Virginia Doucette explain a few basic principles of teaching.

Club members enthusiastically promote the buying of shakers.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

The F.N.C. helps to brighten the lives of the aged of the Loretto Home and the crippled children at the Caverly Child Health Center. In addition, the F.N.C. members make favors for patients at the Rutland Hospital during Christmas and give at least one scholarship to a Senior interested in a nursing career. Club members are introduced to the various facets of nursing through guest speakers, movies, and their invaluable experience in helping others.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, dedicated to fostering scholarship, leadership, character, and service, once again recorded a successful year.

The club accomplished its traditional goals: Share Drive, New Year's Dance, February Assembly, and Awards Night. Furthermore, it revived the policy of having interesting guest speakers at the meetings.

Oh, the relief after a grueling dress rehearsal!

"The Balcony Scene", M.S.J.'s entry in the state one act play contest, presents the predicament of a dead man, present but invisible at his own funeral. Forced not only to face separation from his fiancee, but also to hear the harsh judgements of his "friends", the deceased realizes the folly of his own life and reluctantly hopes that his fiancee will find happiness without him in the future.

EDITORIAL BOARD

There were times throughout the year when the task of assembling "The Mount" seemed comparable to achieving "The Impossible Dream". Yet through the combined efforts of the Editorial Board, pictures were taken, deadlines were met, and our 'dream' was accomplished.

BUSINESS BOARD

Getting down to "Business" was not as formidable a job as might be expected. The Business Board solicited ads with a vigor which convinced even the most thrifty proprietors that "it pays to advertise!".

Sister John Paul has given generously of her abilities and time not only to the business board but the whole yearbook staff. She has guided us through the many aspects involved in compiling the 1967 "Mount"

Academy guitarists worked diligently to lend the "sound of OUR music"

Mr. Coughlin's discussions challenged the retreatants to really "think".

RETREAT

Academians were especially fortunate this year in having Father Curran and Father Quinn as retreat masters. Fr. Curran instructed the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors while Fr. Quinn served as the master for the Freshmen. Integral themes of the retreat were the humanity of Christ and the unfinished quest for answers to our faith. Our Masses were prepared by the students. Participation on a voluntary basis was enhanced by guitar accompaniment and spiritually oriented folksongs. The retreat was a departure from the traditional format in that students were allowed to choose spiritual activities between conferences rather than having a rigid schedule designated for them.

Easygoing and positive in his approach, Father Curran made our retreat most worthwhile.

"Many a talent is wasted because it is never harnessed."

The Mountie football team had a successful season, winning four of its eight games, due to its great desire to win and the outstanding efforts of Mr. Cioffi and Mr. Rizziere. These two great coaches instilled in the boys a sense of good sportsmanship and determination that will carry over into everyday life long after November 11 is just a happy memory.

In the background is Doctor O'Rourke, who was always on hand to bandage bruises either on the field or in his office, and to these three men, the team, the senior class and the student body extend a sincere "Thank You."

A familiar scene at Mountie pep rallies - the Sisters lend prayers and cheers to support their "Mounties."

JUNIOR VARSITY

Though this is his first year, Mr. Kelley and his "little Mounties" finished tied for first place in the Junior Varsity league. Overpowering many opponents, Mr. Kelley cleared his bench for many games this year. In addition, several J.V.'s were brought up and saw a good deal of action in varsity games.

TRACK

One line from "The Impossible Dream" sums up the aim of this year's Academy track team: "to run where the brave dare not go".

The boys, led by Mr. Frank Pitaniello, not only compiled a fine record at their Otter Valley, Burr & Burton, and Ludlow meets, but also showed an indomitable spirit in their less successful efforts.

The boys' and girls' ski team spent the season combining their favorite sport with official competition. Competitive skiing demands preparation, practice, and proof. Summer and fall training programs provided sufficient preparation, frequent practice took place on Pico's slopes, and the proof of a fine ski team came through with the racing results.

GOLF TEAMS

M.S.J.'s golf team gives the spring sport's season a boost at the Mount. This year our "duffers", led by medalist Buddy McGinnis, won the Southern Sectional Championship. The boys practice diligently, both spring and fall, at Rutland Country Club, which allows the team to play free of charge. We congratulate the team on their early success and wish them luck during the upcoming season.
